

Report of the Music Committee

Ellen Mordus

MEMBERS: Ellen Mordis, Lillian Townsend, Eleanor Ross - Ex officio - Cindy Martin, Chris Warren.

The Music Committee has been functioning without the need for meetings. Under the direction of our choir director, Cindy Martin, and our organist, Chris Warren, our music program has run smoothly this year. With the music program running so efficiently, there have been no issues that have required meetings.

The pianos and organs have been maintained as per usual.

SENIOR CHOIR: The choir has consisted of a dozen or more members most Sundays. We are blessed to have four students this year, three of the Rebuck clan (Sabrina, Tara, and Derek), and David Schutt. The quilt class once again donated $100 for the purchase of music for the choir. The Christian Women's Fellowship also contributed $500. The congregation has enjoyed the new music. The Easter and Christmas music selections were wonderful.

JUNIOR CHOIR: The children continued to sing the third Sunday of the month, still under the direction of Cindy Martin. Their contribution to the music program has been wonderful.

FOURTH OF JULY: Chris Warren once again performed a patriotic organ recital for the community celebration. Refreshments were served.

Summer services were covered by the efforts of Lillian Townsend.

The Townsends have continued to work behind the scenes for the choir, preparing the music for Sunday morning worship, a much appreciated contribution.

The choirs look forward to another great year under the direction of Cindy Martin and the accompaniment of Chris Warren.

Respectfully submitted for the Music Committee by Ellen Mordus
